Each One of Us Needs to Look After the Good of the People Around Us!

This is my June 2025 newsletter article, an article for me to try and say “farewell” to the flock attending FUMC BV. It comes with a flood of emotions that Bishop Merrill has accurately described as “grieving, wondering, and anticipating, all at once”. She has faced these new pastoral appointments and the associated transition processes many times in her ministry. She has received the calls to leave places filled with joy, love, and grace to go into new, unknown mission fields. The new appointments were to go and share the good news in new places and she has experienced these transitions many times. Now, I am experiencing it (again) and it is unsettling to say the least. And when my heart and mind are unsettled, and they are, I know my source of strength, hope, and guidance will be found in the Scriptures. I have started, edited, stopped, and restarted this article many times. The wondrous Holy Spirit keeps bringing me back to much of Luke’s Book of Romans and the 15th Chapter in particular.

Just over 25 years after the death of Christ, the Apostle Paul was in Corinth and wrote his longest epistle to the Christian people of Rome. Using The Message: The Bible in Contemporary Language by Rev. Eugene Peterson, I share verses 1-2 and also the 14th through 21st verses.

“1-2 Those of us who are strong and able in the faith need to step in and lend a hand to those who falter, and not just do what is most convenient for us. Strength is for service, not status. Each one of us needs to look after the good of the people around us, asking ourselves, ‘How can I help?’”

“14-16 Personally, I’ve been completely satisfied with who you are and what you are doing. You seem to be well-motivated and well-instructed, quite capable of guiding and advising one another. So, my dear friends, don’t take my rather bold and blunt language as criticism. It’s not criticism. I’m simply underlining how very much I need your help in carrying out this highly focused assignment God gave me, this priestly and gospel work of serving the spiritual needs of the non-Jewish outsiders so they can be presented as an acceptable offering to God, made whole and holy by God’s Holy Spirit.

17-21 Looking back over what has been accomplished and what I have observed, I must say I am most pleased—in the context of Jesus, I’d even say proud, but only in that context. I have no interest in giving you a chatty account of my adventures, only the wondrously powerful and transformingly present words and deeds of Christ in me that triggered a believing response among the outsiders. In such ways I have trailblazed a preaching of the Message of Jesus all the way from Jerusalem far into north-western Greece. This has all been pioneer work, bringing the Message only into those places where Jesus was not yet known and worshiped. My text has been,

*Those who were never told of him —
they’ll see him!*

*Those who’ve never heard of him —
they’ll get the message!”¹*

When I read and reread these verses, I want to highlight and underline practically every word. I am “completely satisfied” with who you are and what you’re doing. The impact you have had on yourselves, each other, and this community is simply amazing. You are well-motivated and are truly guiding and advising one another. The body of Christ needs your help in continuing to carry out

From Rev. Ron Hayes

the highly focused assignment God has given each of us – to share the good news in word and deed out into the world.

As God has blessed each of us in different ways, your strengths, your gifts, your opportunities are yours alone. Each of us is called to use them. Sometimes it seems easy and other times it is not the most convenient time for us. Yet, we need to look after each other, comfort each other, encourage each other, and ask ourselves, “How can I help?” Share a listening ear as someone needs to be heard but also be of good cheer yourself and help others see the upside, the bright side of life found in Christ. This is serving Christ and doing the essential work of fulfilling the spiritual needs of all. Present it with joy and as an acceptable offering to God. God will make it whole and holy by God’s Holy Spirit.

For me, in my first appointment as a lead pastor, this has been much like the pioneering work Paul mentions in these verses. It has been about bringing the Message and working to ensure that last verse:

*“Those who were never told of him —
they’ll see him!
Those who’ve never heard of him —
they’ll get the message!”*

The work of sharing the Gospel, the Good News, never ends. Luke does not record Paul declaring the work would always be joyful and easy. The path we walk is sometimes bumpy, dark, and difficult. Paul does challenge us to stay strong and hopeful. He does say we are to stay strong and able in our faith in Jesus and His saving grace. We are called to be doers.

As we move through the transitional month of June, what are you going to do to make this a magnificent transition in the ministry of FUMC Bella Vista? If asked, are you ready to say yes? What are you willing to volunteer to do - without even being asked? It’s never wrong to go ahead and do something good in the name of Christ.

Perhaps you remember my initial proposition upon being appointed to FUMC Bella Vista three years ago: “What are your gifts? What are you good at doing? What do you do that brings you joy? What do you look forward to doing?” With those answers before you (your answers for you today), now go do them for God by loving and sharing those gifts with all you meet.

We will continue to be in ministry together. You will share the light and love here in Bella Vista as I am called to share the light and love in the heart of Fayetteville. I look forward to hearing and reading about the great things you do in the months and years ahead in the name of Christ.

I will hold each of you, and this wonderful church of FUMC Bella Vista, in my prayers each day. I ask that you do the same for Julie, as well as Allen and his wife, Conny, those in my new mission field – and me.

May God’s peace and blessings be yours,

¹ The Message: The Bible in Contemporary Language, Eugene H. Peterson, NavPress, Colorado Springs, 2002, pg. 1431.

MISSIONS

SHOEBOX MINISTRY IS BACK!

FUMCBV Shoebox Ministry is regrouping, re-energizing, and eager to again show God's love in a tangible way to our community. Our mission is to assist local agencies that provide a helping hand to the homeless or those at risk of homelessness in NW Arkansas. WE NEED YOUR HELP!

We will be collecting toiletries, hygiene, and personal care products. These will be delivered to area agencies to distribute to people who have the most need. The small toiletries you collect when you travel are needed but so are regular-sized items. A sample of the items we are collecting includes:

Empty Shoeboxes (with lids)
Shampoo & Conditioner
Toothbrushes/Toothpaste/Floss
Hair Combs/Hair Brushes
Body Lotion
Sun Screen

Lip Balm
Pocket-Sized Tissues
Puzzle Books (all ages)
Soap
Deodorant
Wash Cloths

Socks
Diapers
Band-aids, Neosporin
Antibiotic Cream
Old copies of Reader's Digest,
Bird or Nature Magazines

Monetary donations are also needed, as this will let us buy items to "round out" the contents of our shoeboxes. Please note "Shoebox" on your check memo line or on any envelope that contains cash for Shoebox.

If you have questions about Shoebox or the agencies we support, please contact Marian Lawless at 479-212-4996 or email mccmar54@hotmail.com. Also, let us know if you'd be willing to lend a helping hand as needed. THANK YOU IN ADVANCE FOR YOUR SUPPORT.

The Shoebox Ministry is alive and well!! The newly-revived Shoebox Ministry is back thanks to Marian Lawless and Denise Waller. Marian recently delivered 140 shoeboxes of personal hygiene items to two Salvation Army homeless shelters in Bentonville and Fayetteville. Both locations expressed their gratitude for these donations. One shelter manager said they receive a lot of food donations but hardly any hygiene products. This is a wonderful and very much-needed mission.

The Bella Vista Boys & Girls Club works with hundreds of kids and teens each year to help them reach their full potential. We provide an environment where all youth feel safe and secure to dream, discover, and develop. Our programs focus on helping kids succeed in school, live healthy lifestyles, and become leaders. We are so glad to be part of this community and look forward to working with you!

John and Mary Hixson, our Blessing Box caretakers, would like to thank the Dreamers WB group for the WONDERFUL supply of food they recently donated. Maybe more groups will make that a project in the coming months.

School is out, so the need is great. Right now, we need CREAMY PEANUT BUTTER, PROTEIN (like canned meats), MAIN DISHES (like Hormel Compleats), MAC & CHEESE IN A CUP, RAMEN NOODLES, CANNED FRUIT OR FRUIT COCKTAIL, POP TARTS, CEREAL, AND SHELF-STABLE MILK (like Parmalat) for the BLESSING BOX. Medium-sized jars of peanut butter and boxes of cereal are best so they fit in the Blessing Box. We're also giving out SMALL BOTTLES OF LAUNDRY DETERGENT, TOILET TISSUE, PAPER TOWELS, & DIAPERS. Please drop off your donations in Room 5, the Blessing Box Room, or the office. PLEASE NO EXPIRED/DENTED/OPENED/UNLABELED CANS.

Thank You

*Dear Church Family,
Thank you so much for the wonderful graduation celebration. I am truly grateful for your love, support, and encouragement during this special time in my life!*

With heartfelt thanks, Hope Markley

Thank You

Your kindness is a true gift. I am so grateful for all your cards, texts, and phone calls. I can never thank you enough for your support and friendship. I am truly honored.

Loretta Tidwell

HELPING HANDS WORK DAY

Are you looking for a "hands-on" mission project? Our church is scheduled to work at the Helping Hands Resale Shop in Bentonville on Saturday, June 28. The indoor work is from 12:00pm to 4:00pm and includes cashiering, bagging the customer's purchases, or roaming the sales floor to clean and tidy up or perhaps put out items. (It's a great way to do a little shopping at the same time - at half price!) If you're feeling strong, they can always use help out back receiving donations either in the morning or afternoon. For questions, speak to Verna Bottjen, 876-1392.

Pastor Ron has spoiled a lot of us by getting to the church early everyday for the last 3 years which made it very convenient for groups that meet at 9:00am and those of us responsible for opening the doors. As we transition to a new pastor over the next couple of months, Amy and Andrea appreciate your patience, understanding, and help in spreading the word within your groups about our operating hours. The office opens at 9:00am, so the church doors will be unlocked shortly before unless previously arranged with one of them. BVPS is now closed for the summer, so you can't enter the building early without a key.

Bella Vista Questers, Trail of Tears Chapter, donate remaining funds

Terri O'Byrne/The Weekly Vista

The Bella Vista Questers-Trail of Tears Chapter is dis-banding after 40 years. It was a member vote to divide the club's remaining monies to two Bella Vista charity organizations. On April 26, the Dug Hill Church received half of those funds standing on the steps of the 89-year-old church. From left are Julie Fischer, Vice-President Questers-Trail of Tears; Sam Walker, whose family owns the church land; and Florence Hill, Treasurer of the Questers. The church building has not been used regularly for several years and has fallen into disrepair, so the goal is to make it usable again for community events.

During a presentation April 26 the Bella Vista Historical Museum received half of the remaining funds of the Bella Vista Questers-Trail of Tears Chapter after their decision to disband. From left are Florence Hill, Treasurer of the Questers-Trail of Tears; Xyta Lucas and Dale Phillips, Co-Presidents of the museum; and Julie Fischer, Vice-President of the Questers-Trail of Tears. Lucas and Phillips stated the generous donation of $1,400+ will be put into the museum's building renovation fund to help with the $2 million goal.
